

Zipti, Budhi, Garbiyang, Napalchu, Gunji, Navi, Rongkong, Kutti, enroute when we go Buddhi to Gunji a place Chhiyalekh. From here we can see the mind blowing Bugyal which is full of alpine wild flowers, Himalayan herbs, great Himalayan peaks, peace and serenity. Enroute to Adi-Kailash from Chhiyalekh, Gunji, Nabi, Kutti we see a breath taking view of the Himalayan peaks. You can catch the different and ever changing moods of their snow covered mountains, beautiful rivers, peaks, which seems to touch the sky green meadows and treacherous glaciers make this area a heaven for those seeking high adrenaline closes.

All over the world, only the Uttarakhand section of the Himalayas have traditionally attracted humanity in search of spiritual awakening since the very beginning of human history on this earth. The local folk called "Shauka" "Rang" Garbyang, Napalchu, Gunji, Nabi, Rong-kong Kutti has much to say about their land. The village Kutti is named after Kunti, the mother of Pandavas. Kunti apparently stayed at this spot for some time. Likewise they claim that the great sage Vyash lived here for a long time and wrote many books. The bhotiyas have preserved their heritage assiduously and are always ready to show glimpses of it through dance and music.

Patal Bhuvneshwar: The temple complex with a natural cave. The time rocks inside the cave have various fascinating shapes due to the effect of water. The cave is believed to be the abode of the deities of Hindu Panthon.

Jageshwar: Jageshwar is the cluster of ancient temples from 8th – 12th century A.D. the complex consisting of 124 temples and hundreds of statues is not merely famous for its sevaymbhi lingum named "Naagesh" the main temples are dedicated to Maha Mrityunjaya, Mahishashwar Mardani, Kedarnath, Baleshwar, Surya, Navgraha, Mahakali, Navdurga etc. Jageshwar is amongst the 12 Jyotirlings in india and Adi Shankaracharya also medicated here.

Appeal

- While trekking, walk towards the hill, not to the drop-side. Don't withdraw towards drop-side to give way to any person or horse/pony.
- The yatra time is from morning to noon. So yatries are advised to start early and reach next camp by noon. Wet clothes, due to rain or sweat, should be changed and make your arrangements for next day's yatra.
- The arrangements for horses and porters are to be done in the very beginning at Mangati. It is not possible to get them in the middle of yatra.
- Trek according to the route. Don't experiment with shortcuts or intruded ways.
- During your trek, be cautious, yet confident. Take special care of difficult terrain and watch out for landslides, falling rocks/ boulders, cloudbursts, the Kali River flowing alongside. You should trek as a team, taking care of your other team-members and warning each other of potential hazards.
- Use only water of safe springs for drinking. Fill your water bottles from camp. On the wayside, teashops give relief.
- During the selection itself Yatries are advised to procure good quality trekking shoes/ walking-stick, raincoats, Polythene and Rucksacks to carry their belongings, goggles, woolens mufflers, hats, jackets/wind-cheaters, couple of pairs of socks, cameras, transistor radios and general medicines. Notebooks and pens can also prove handy.
- The weight of your luggage should be upto 15 kg only. Extra weight will be charged.
- From Delhi to Jolingkong/Nabhidhang and back from Jolingkong/Nabhidhang to Delhi there are good arrangements by K. M. V. N., but K.M.V.N. or Uttranchal Tourism is not responsible for any accident. If a yatri doesn't attend after selection, money will be not refunded.
- The lodging facilities on the way are in tin-sheds, snow-huts. Warm beddings are adequately provided. Onion-less food, rice, Dal, chapatis, vegetables, pickle, puri, paratha, pakori, vegetable soup, sweets, rasna, tea, Bournvita, and local green vegetables are available.
- In case of illness, one may have to stop the yatra midway and return, but money is not refunded. In emergencies, a helicopter can also be arranged, on payment and depending on availability.
- Rucksack, water bottle, jacket or sleeping bags can be hired from KMVN.
- Photography is not prohibited during the yatra, so yatries are advised to carry a sufficient stock of photo rolls & Camera cells.
